

CLAMOR EXECUTION HUNDREDS VON HINDENBURG SAVES VON PAPEN

ARMY BEING HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR OFFICIAL'S SAFETY

STAGE OF SIEGE THREATENED IF VON PAPEN IS DISCIPLINED IN ANY WAY

(Copyright, 1934, By The Associated Press)
By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
BERLIN, July 2.—(P)—A bold stroke from President Paul von Hindenburg today, calling the reichsweg to the defense of Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen's safety, was quickly followed by advices from usually well informed quarters that the vice chancellor would resign, or would be ousted at the instigation of Chancellor Hitler, probably tomorrow.

Advisors said that Prussian Premier Hermann Goering would succeed von Papen in the vice chancellery.

President von Hindenburg, who earlier in the day had sent his congratulations and blessings to both Hitler and Goering, threatened a state of siege if von Papen were victimized for his recent bold stand in criticizing some Nazi policies.

A guard of special blackshirt soldiers was delegated to ensure von Papen's safety.

The ultimate fate of the vice chancellor, bitter conservative foe of some of the Nazi methods, had become a question of burning moment in Germany when his friend and patron, President von Hindenburg, gave his blessing to the move.

Chancellor Hitler, from his retreat in Neudeck where he is lying ill, telegraphed the chancellor:

"You have saved the German people from serious dangers. I feel grateful to you with deep thanks and with cordial regards."

So far as was known to the general public von Papen was still forbidden to leave his apartment adjoining Hitler's. Several of his close collaborators were dead.

Close Friends Killed.

Ruthless "liquidation" of Nazi extremists and rightist opposed to the Nazi regime, included Werner von Alvensleben, von Papen's close friend, the vice chancellor's adjutant, Friedrich von Tschirsky, was reported to have committed suicide. Von Papen's secretary, Hubert von Bose, was said to have gone the same way.

Others close to von Papen were said to have been given the alternative of doing away with themselves or facing the firing squad.

It was apparent to all that Hitler and his chief adjutant, Hermann Goering, were, in the present situation at least, firmly in the saddle.

With the principal leaders of the opposition already dead and other shootings rumored hourly, opposing forces had no directing heads to lead them into action.

Mexico's President

Here is General Lazaro Cardenas, whose election as president of Mexico as a candidate of the powerful National Revolutionary Party is assured. The 39-year-old soldier is a protégé of ex-President Plutarco Elias Calles, Mexican strong man.

CARDENAS ELECTED PRESIDENT MEXICO IN ORDERLY VOTING

SUNDAY'S ELECTION ONE OF MOST ONE-SIDED AND QUIETEST IN HISTORY

By CLARK LEE
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
MEXICO, D. F., July 2.—(P)—A strapping 39-year-old revolutionary veteran of mixed Spanish and Indian descent, General Lazaro Cardenas, was assured election today as the forty-fifth constitutional president of Mexico.

The election yesterday was the most orderly and one-sided in the history of the nation. One person, an election judge in Ocotzingo, Veracruz, was shot to death in a scuffle, but there were only minor clashes elsewhere.

Both defeated candidates asserted, however, that the national revolutionary (administration) party supporters of Cardenas violated election laws in rolling up an estimated 86 per cent of the total vote.

General Antonio Villarreal and Colonel Adalberto Tejeda both charged numerous irregularities and said they would not recognize the results of the election.

Headquarters for Villarreal, nominal leader of the confederation of independent democratic parties, issued a statement:

FORMER WIFE, HER MOTHER AND HER SON ARE SHOT TO DEATH

SLAYER THEN BLOWS HEAD OFF WITH SHOTGUN PLACED UNDER HIS CHIN

DALLAS, July 2.—(P)—Bursts of shotgun fire, aimed with deadly accuracy by Hugh Davis, killed his former wife, her 17-year-old son by a former marriage, and her mother today. Davis then ended his own life with a charge from the same weapon.

MRS. SALLIE CARSON, 45, the ex-wife of Davis, was shot dead. Mrs. JULIA PATRICK MONROE, 65, her mother, and SAM CARSON, 17, Mrs. Carson's son, were also killed.

HUGH DAVIS, 50, resident at Bachman's Lake.

So far as investigating police could learn, Davis probably was aroused over failure of his former wife to visit him at his Bachman's Lake fishing camp yesterday, as he had wished.

Mrs. F. D. Richard, another relative of the family, was a eye-witness to the tragedy. She told police she was in the back yard when Davis drove into the yard and stopped his car. He carried a pump shotgun in his hand.

"When I saw him start toward the house with the gun, I ran to the back door and started screaming," Mrs. Richard said.

Just then Mrs. Monroe stepped out into the back sleeping porch and Davis shot her dead. Mrs. Carson, who was standing near the back porch and Davis shot her in the abdomen. She fell dead at her mother's feet. Sam Carson, witness to the slaying of his mother and grandmother, started to flee through the front door but was charged of shot out him down and he crumpled to the floor.

Davis then returned to the sleeping porch and, standing a few feet from the body of his former wife, placed the muzzle of the shotgun under his chin and pulled the trigger, almost decapitating himself.

Mrs. Richard, almost too frightened to follow, ran to a nearby lunch stand and called police.

CATTLE BUYING TO BE SPEEDED; SHEEP ALSO BEING ADDED

EXTREME HEAT OVER THE DROUGHT AREA BRINGS ACUTE SITUATION

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(P)—Faced with reports of continued dry weather with extreme heat over the drought area the farm administration was expected today to urge its purchasing agents to speed cattle buying and expand the program to include sheep.

Three factors govern relief purchases of livestock from now on, officials said—the ability of the federal relief administration to take the orders and ship them to processing plants.

About 300,000 head of cattle have been purchased in addition to the 500,000 head already shipped to packing plants. The 300,000 are being held on farms or at concentration points awaiting disposal.

Efforts were made by relief officials to speed up the program.

Buying of cattle has been hampered somewhat to date, it was noted, owing to inability of the relief organization to take the livestock at the farm after they have been purchased and ship them to processing plants.

Chief interest was in the race for democratic nominations for governor. And the main issue in the election is Governor William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray, who cannot run for re-election, but who has endorsed a complete slate of state officials headed by Speaker Tom Anglin of Holdenville for governor.

With 15 democrats seeking the office now held by Murray, tomorrow's primary election will narrow the field to the two men receiving the most votes. These two and the high men in other races except where a candidate receives a majority of all votes cast, will contest for nomination in a run-off election, July 24.

While the fiery "Alfalfa Bill" has stumped the state personally for his selected slate, he has taken little part in the congressional campaign. Anti-administration candidates are flaying his chosen candidates and are urging their defeat in an effort to end Murray's influence in Oklahoma politics.

Anglin, backed by the administration machine, is expected by political observers to reach the run-off primary.

A well-timed "boom" for Rep. E. W. Marland of Ponca City, Oklahoma, was expected today.

American Girl Is Arrested Taking Kremlin Picture

MOSCOW, U.S.S.R., July 2.—(P)—Miss Avis Thayer of Philadelphia, who is visiting her brother, Charles Thayer, private secretary to Ambassador William C. Bullitt, was arrested today and held in police court for an hour and a half for taking a photograph of one of the Kremlin gates.

The arrest was made by militiamen. They took Miss Thayer's film away from her and released her when her identity had been established through communication with the American embassy.

Soviet officials said the entire Kremlin area is closed to photographers without a special permit, which Miss Thayer did not have.

SHARP DECLINE IN BUSINESS MORTALITY RATE IS REPORTED

GAIN IN MERCHANDISE DISTRIBUTION AND BUILDING IN ELEVENTH DISTRICT

DALLAS, July 2.—(P)—The monthly business review of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas released today, cites "a sharp decline in the business mortality rate, a substantial improvement in merchandise distribution and a gain in building operations" as constructive features of the business and industrial situation in the eleventh district in May.

Failure in that month, the review says, were at a low level and the indebtedness of defaulting firms was the smallest in any month during the past 14 years. The sales of department stores, in larger cities reflected a gain of 10 per cent over April and 22 per cent more than in May last year.

Wholesale distribution, the review discloses, was substantially larger than in April and exceeded that in May, 1933, by a wide margin notwithstanding business in the latter month was very active. The valuation of building permits issued at principal cities in May was approximately double that in either the previous month or the corresponding month of 1933.

Continuing the review says: "Comparing to some extent the favorable business situation have been the untoward developments in the agricultural and livestock industries. The continuance of

Madman Battled Police; One Dead, Four Wounded

ELIZABETH, N. J., July 2.—(P)—A madman with a gun fought it out with a squad of policemen in his home and today one of the policemen is dead, three others wounded, and the gunman himself in a serious condition.

Patrolman Frank Carino, 27, first of the policemen to enter the home of the man last night, fell dead. He was shot in the chest. Three other officers rushed the house, each to fall as George Mora, 31-year-old son of a former policeman, fired into the group. Two of the policemen entered and one of them shot Mora in the head.

The wounded are Patrolman Daniel Tracey, 46, shot through the stomach; Patrolman Thomas O'Brien, shot in the right arm; Patrolman Henry Elmer, 35, shot in the left knee.

Tracey's condition is critical.

TWO LONGVIEW MEN BURNED TO DEATH IN CRASH OF AIRPLANE

ACCIDENT OCCURRED IMMEDIATELY AFTER TAKING OFF FROM CENTER AIRPORT

CENTER, July 2.—(P)—Two Longview men were burned to death at Center's municipal airport today when their monoplane crashed immediately after taking-off. The victims, only occupants of the cabin plane were Ned Allen, 30, automobile salesman for the Polk Motor Company at Longview, and Roy Heinlein, airplane engineer of Longview and Dallas.

The two young men had just started to fly back to Longview, after spending the week-end here, when the plane nosed to the ground at high speed and burst into flames. It struck just outside the airport confines. Flames made it impossible for persons who witnessed the tragedy to extricate the bodies from the ship for fully 30 minutes.

Cause of the crash was not determined. Witnesses said they saw it nose sharply down but what was responsible for its action was not explainable by them.

CAUSES LEADING TO HITLER'S BUTCHERY COUP ON SATURDAY

CONFLICT BETWEEN STORM TROOPS AND VETERANS NOT LEAST OF TROUBLES

(By The Associated Press)
In the building of a new, "Nazi-fied" Germany, Adolf Hitler has had to deal with numerous cross currents of opinion, some of which are involved today in the tense situation in the Reich.

Always in the political background there has been the knowledge that the royal family—though supplanted by a Republic and a dictatorship—still exists. There have been considerable numbers of Germans who have felt that a return to monarchy with either the former kaiser himself or his eldest son on the throne, would be desirable.

This monarchist group has not been hostile to Hitler, for many monarchists have urged that with a return to monarchy Hitler should remain as chancellor and virtual ruler.

Among the monarchists were Gen. Von Schleicher, who was Hitler's immediate predecessor as chancellor. Today Von Schleicher is dead, slain (with his wife) while "resisting arrest" Saturday when he was taken to the prison.

BEWILDERMENT AND FEAR HELD SWAY IN STORMTROOP RANKS

WHERE AXE WILL FALL NEXT AND FUTURE STATUS QUESTIONS UNANSWERED

BERLIN, July 2.—(P)—Fear and bewilderment spread like wildfire today through the ranks of the brown-shirted highbooster storm troopers.

Rumors came back to this group, most affected by Chancellor Hitler's "house cleaning" that the heyday of the famous brown army had passed.

The fear struck directly at the subleaders, on a salary basis, who were left to wonder whether they would be swept aside by the great broom.

The bewilderment fell among the rank and file who knew only that their erstwhile leader, Ernst Roehm, is dead, with public disgraces on his name and that they are to take orders from a comparatively unknown leader, Victor Lutze.

A definite belief prevailed that Roehm's followers will not be content to let matters stand as they are, despite a stern government demand that they do so.

For the average storm trooper, moreover, there was uncertainty and speculation as to what they will be called on to do in view of the persistence of their new leader that they "obey blindly."

Many salaried members of the

Eye-Witness to Execution of 60 Tells A. P. Man

BERLIN, July 2.—(P)—A black-shirted member of the Schutz Staffel, pick of the storm troops, today gave the Associated Press an eye-witness account of the slaying of 60 storm troopers in Berlin.

Himself obviously a member of one of the firing squads of eight, he firmly closed that the sound of a human voice could not penetrate to the outside. He was trembling and on the verge of collapse.

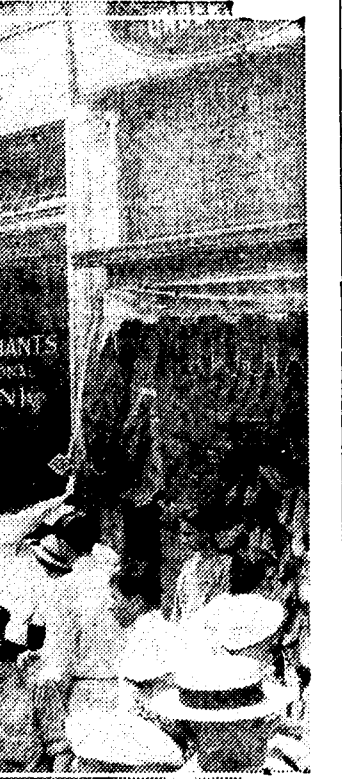

The executions, he said, were expedited in rapid fire order. The special Nazi tribunal provided for last December, now functioning for the first time.

He revealed that the Kaiser's proud cadet training school at Lighterside in a Berlin suburb, was being used for the execution.

HITLER'S RUTHLESS DRIVE AGAINST NEW REVOLT CONTINUES

REPORTED HITLER TO BECOME PRESIDENT ON DEATH OF VON HINDENBURG

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
Copyright 1934, by The Associated Press.
BERLIN, July 2.—(P)—The list of executions mounted rapidly tonight. It was reported 60 have been put to death in Berlin alone.

In a source usually reliable it was stated the "heads will roll" edict has produced a toll mounting into hundreds. The flow of blood together with a well authenticated prediction that Premier Hermann Wilhelm Goering will soon replace Franz von Papen as vice chancellor, whipped the political pot into a new fury.

Among various reported plans for the future of Chancellor Hitler's political regime, was one that Hitler will assume the presidency of Germany on the death of von Hindenburg. Germany's grand old man of war and peace, who is ill at his home in Neudeck.

FURTHER OUTBREAKS, RETURN OF HOHENZOLLERN DYNASTY ARE PREDICTED AS RESULT NAZISM

(By The Associated Press)
Predictions of a return of the Hohenzollerns and of further outbreaks were included today in European reaction to Chancellor Hitler's ruthless suppression of an incipient revolt.

Hitler's "violent" methods were criticized by Engelbert Dollfuss, Austria's dictator, who said "does not the light at last dawn upon that one cannot make a people happy with violent methods?"

Austrian newspapers were almost unanimous in predicting further clashes within the Reich.

Paris interpreted the week-end as a victory for conservatives and as opening the possibility for a return to the Hohenzollerns. The violence, it was claimed, revealed a breakdown in the unity of the Hitler movement.

In London the view was taken that Hitler had solidified his position.

Some papers accused him of employing the methods of King George V. and called the slaying of storm troopers "brutal murders."

A dispatch from Doorn said there was unusual activity about the estate of former Emperor Wilhelm and that he remained indoors.

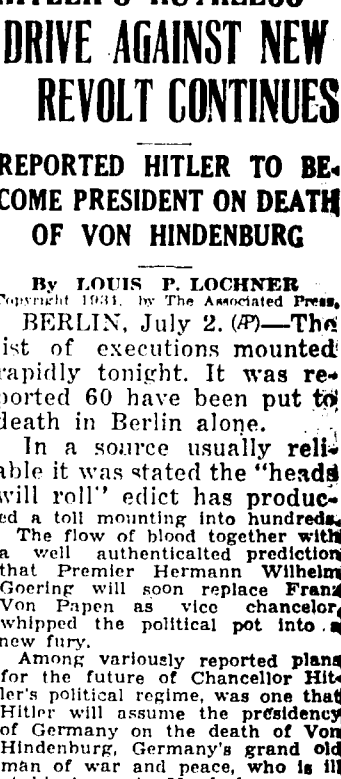

The Soviet press said the week-end indicated the desperation of the "ruling class," which was seeking to prevent a proletarian revolution.

"Heads have fallen," said the Communist newspaper Pravda, "but the Fascist dictatorship enters into a new period with incomparably worse prospects for the future. The fate of the ruling class in Germany is in the balance."

COMMODITY PRICES SHOW GAIN DURING FIRST HALF OF 1934

MARCH, 1933, MARKED THE LOWEST POINT REACHED IN PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS

By RADER WINGET
NEW YORK, July 2.—(AP)—Commodity prices with a 1933 average index of 65.6, opened this year at 72.2 and climbed to 73.7 for May.

That index compiled by the United States department of labor for 784 commodities stood at 69.2 in March 1933, the lowest point in the last 18 months.

Standard Statistics company's daily index of commodity prices moved upward from a low point of 66.25 January 2, to a high point of 71.11 on June 1.

Adjustment of prices which were very low 18 months ago has progressed with the lowest coming nearer the higher prices near midyear.

One of the aims of the Washington administration has been to bring the lowest prices upward by the greatest degree while at the same time increasing only moderately those prices which had not fallen so low.

The all-farm commodities index moved from 70 to 74 from January to May with the previous year averaging 63. The lowest point of 49 in the last 18 months occurred in February of 1933.

Farm commodities rise
Farm prices have been affected by the drought, and many traders predict steady price increases in the near future.

The index of general prices with 1913 as 100 stood at 137 for April as against 132 in January and an average of 129 for 1933.

Retail food prices, which are of vital interest to the consumer, are affected materially by wholesale commodity prices, but an increase in wholesale prices does not mean a corresponding increase in retail prices because many of the factors which make retail prices average higher than wholesale are fixed.

The retail food index, based on 1913 as 100, stood at 102.2 in May as against 103.2 in January. The average for 1933 was 99.4.

EXPORTS GAIN DURING FIRST PART OF THE YEAR WITH EUROPE STILL IN "BEST CUSTOMER" ROLE

By CARL C. CRANMER

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(AP)—

The United States, world's largest exporter, made important gains in the first part of 1934, compared with the same period of 1933, although confronted by many difficulties in international commerce not yet solved.

From January to April, inclusive, the department of commerce reports total United States exports were $893,200,000 compared with $427,400,000 in 1933. Imports for the period amounted to $547,900,000, also a gain over the figure of $365,100,000 for 1933.

Devaluation a Factor
Higher prices per unit of goods sold contributed to the larger trade figures as measured in value. But dollar devaluation, which made dollars cheaper in terms of foreign currencies, is also considered a factor.

The department of commerce index adjusted for seasonal variations, shows the actual quantities of goods exported were 48 per cent of the 1923-25 average, compared with 29 per cent last year. Imports were 43 per cent of the 1923-25 average, compared with 27 per cent a year ago.

While total exports in April were about six per cent less than March, the change was seasonal, largely due to a tapering off of raw cotton shipments. Cotton shipments also continued to decline in May.

Export Increase General
Analysis of the first quarter by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States shows that the increase in exports was general. Only four out of 50 principal exports failed to show an increase in value as compared with 1933 when banking troubles and other difficulties had forced business in the United States to an extremely low level.

In actual quantity shipments 71 out of 89 principal exports, or 80 per cent, showed gains that ranged up to 752 per cent for the quarter.

The greatest percentage increases in quantity shipments were made by steel rails - - - 752 per cent - automobiles, tires, wheat, cotton, tobacco, electrical machinery, typewriters, agricultural machinery, refrigerators, crude petroleum products, wire, refined copper, textile machinery, radio sets, apples, metal working machinery, heavy iron and steel and other products.

Some of the gains, notably steel rails, iron and steel scrap, wire, radio sets and refrigerators, put exports at above the 5-year 1923-33 average.

World Sales Rose
Department of commerce figures show trade increased to all parts of the world. Europe, the United States' best customer, took 61 per cent more American goods in the first quarter than in the same period in 1933. Africa took 63 per cent more and Oceania 62 per cent more. Exports to South America increased 41 per cent.

War debts, tariffs, exchange restrictions, quotas and protective trade agreements continued to interpose barriers in the way of world trade during the six months, however.

But department of commerce foreign finance authorities noted one encouraging sign, a growing tendency, particularly in South America to relax exchange restrictions.

United States exports in the first part of 1934 to Europe and South America, America's chief customers, show a notable rise over the previous year. Almost all lines benefited, with gains ranging up to 752 per cent (for steel rails). Imports also increased, as indicated by the lighter lines above. American goods went to other parts of the world as well in increasing quantities.

Armed Troops Marched Through Streets; Three Political Leaders Killed

(Copyright, 1934, By The Associated Press.)

BERLIN, June 30.—Heads of three groups regarded as opposed to Chancellor Adolf Hitler today died violent deaths as the German leader smashed a "second revolution" in Germany.

Captain Ernst Roehm, national chief of the Nazi storm troops, committed suicide when Hitler had him arrested as a conspirator against the government.

Former Chancellor Kurt Von Schleicher, leader of the reactionary conservatives and monarchists, was killed "resisting arrest" as a conspirator.

Heinrich Klausner, chief of the "Catholic Action" party was killed in his office by one of Hitler's special black-shirted guards, a Schutz staff member.

When Von Schleicher was killed, his wife, Frau Elizabeth Von Schleicher also was slain in the fracas that went with the arrest.

BERLIN, June 30.—(AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler today crushed a still-born revolution.

Capt. Ernst Roehm, long his closest friend and his trusted leader of the Nazi storm troops, committed suicide when Hitler had him arrested as a conspirator.

Kurt Von Schleicher, Hitler's predecessor as chancellor of Germany, was killed by police when he resisted arrest as a conspirator.

Roehm was regarded as the most extreme leader of the radical Nazis. Von Schleicher was an extreme reactionary who favored the restoration of the monarchy to Germany.

Von Papen Released.

Vice Chancellor Franz Von Papen, the man who two weeks ago warned Hitler that a second revolution led by extremists was impending, was taken into protective custody but soon released.

The Reichswehr—the National army—was ordered to be in readiness throughout Germany.

Reichswehr soldiers, armed with machine guns, marched down the great boulevard, Unter-den-Linden in the heart of the nation's capital.

The soldiers reinforced heavy details of police who were scattered throughout the city, wearing steel helmets and armed with rifles.

Besides Roehm, a number of other storm troop leaders were dead within a few hours of the time when Hitler struck. Some of them committed suicide, some of them were killed resisting arrest.

The Nazi party announced that Roehm was arrested because he was a conspirator, in league not only with Von Schleicher, but with "a foreign power" and was, furthermore, of such an immoral character that he brought discredit upon the Nazi movement.

Leaders Morally Bad.

The announcement said that while Roehm and other leaders were arrested under Hitler's personal direction, these leaders were found engaged in "a spectacle which was so bad morally that every trace of pity must needs vanish."

Not only was Roehm thrown out to die—but Capt. Karl Ernst, leader of the storm troops at Berlin, was summarily deposed.

Hitler at once appointed as his new commander of the storm troops, Victor Lutze who issued this appeal:

"Storm Troop Comrades and leaders and men:

"Der Fuehrer (Hitler) has called me to his side as chief of staff. The confidence in me thereby must and will be justified by myself through unmeasured fidelity to the leader and measureless devotion to national socialism and thereby to our people.

Pledged Three Virtues.

"When, some twelve years ago, I for the first time became a leader of a Storm Troop unit, I pledged three virtues at the head of all my actions and demanded them from the storm troops. These three virtues made the storm troops great and today when, at a fateful hour, I am privileged to serve my Fuehrer in an important position, they shall now, and thus ever, become the guiding star for the whole storm troops:

"Unquestioning fidelity; the sharpest discipline; the sacrificial spirit of bravery.

"Thus we, who are national socialists, will march together: I am convinced it then be only a march to freedom.

Heines Also Killed.

"Long live Der Fuehrer! Long live our people!

Among the storm troop leaders who were shot dead while resisting arrest, was Edmund Hein-

Right on top of the news of these deaths came the report that Count Wolf Heinrich Ehlendorf, Nazi police president of Potsdam, had been shot and killed.

Vop Heidorf was known as another aide to Hitler and long had served as a leader of Nazis in Berlin. Last year, during the long-drawn out Reichstag arson trial, he was the man who made the Dutch brickman, Marinus Van Der Lubbe, testify. The count was fiery in his declarations and at one time asserted to the storm troops that three communists must die for every storm trooper killed in opposing battles.

Former Chancellor Kurt Von Schleicher, reactionary and monarchist, was killed by police when he resisted arrest as a conspirator.

Capt. Ernst Roehm, national commander of the Nazi storm troops and one of the most advanced radicals, was deposed from power and ejected from the Nazi party.

Premier Hermann Wilhelm Goering of Prussia announced that he was carrying out drastic police action on Hitler's personal orders against Nazi storm troop leaders attempting to force a second German revolution.

His measures, he said, were extended in two directions—against absolute reactionaries and absolute radicals.

"In order that no false news might be spread," Goering told a meeting of foreign press correspondents, "I have ordered all communications with foreign countries stopped for the present until my new statement which gives you the undiluted truth, but I warn you seriously not to let your imagination run wild."

Certain Clique Blamed.

"For weeks, we have known that a certain clique of storm troop leaders have been attempting to mislead the brave and dedicated storm troop men on to a path leading to revolution."

"That would necessarily have led to the overthrowing of the state."

"The chief of the secret police and my police comrades have watched these men minutely and know what they had in mind, namely, a second revolution."

Der Fuehrer (the leader, i. e., Hitler) is determined to make an example and to let the whole world know that whoever raises his hand against the third reich (the present government of Germany) loses his head."

"Roehm and co-workers thought they could bring pressure to bear upon der fuehrer but he got ahead of them. Der fuehrer has had Roehm arrested and put into jail where he will await judgment."

"Many group and upper group leaders (of the storm troops) also have been seized and will await their day of judgment."

"Der fuehrer orders me to represent him in this action, which I shall carry out without giving quarter."

Even as Goering made his announcement, the streets of Berlin were being patrolled by steel-helmeted policemen armed with rifles.

Hitler's crack special guard, the black-shirted Schutz Staffel, were to be seen on duty at the various headquarters of the brown-shirted Nazi storm troops.

"All of Prussia is firm in my hands," said the Prussian premier, "The Schutz Staffel and my police have everything taken charge of party headquarters."

"The storm troops have not offered any resistance. They were merely misled."

"I have naturally also taken measures against those circles that in any way endanger the existence of the state and have turned against the reactionaries, whether left or right."

"The storm troop army is brave and we must show to it in what way it has been misled."

No Cause for Uneasiness.

"There is no cause for any uneasiness. Some storm troop leaders, overwhelmed and dependent upon realizing what they had done, have committed suicide."

"Some have had to be shot when they offered resistance."

"They, however, constitute only a small part."

"Karl Ernst (commander of the Nazi storm troops in Berlin and in Brandenburg) was arrested in Bremen and is being brought here for trial. That means that the last of the mutiny leaders is behind the bars."

Der Fuehrer will address the German people and the storm troops tonight or possibly tomorrow.

"Today's events make no difference in the leave or absence of the storm troops."

The brave storm troop men will go on leave as planned."

Warned Again and Again.

"We warned these gentlemen again and again against a second revolution. Now it was made and it was not they who made it and not they."

"That second revolution now is ended."

"The state and the party will be purified and cleaned."

"The position of der fuehrer is purer than ever."

"While he shows patience for a long time, yet when he strikes, he strikes hard and decisively. As for himself, you know me well enough to realize that I, too, do not wear silk gloves or that I hesitate."

"I attach the greatest importance to having you tell the world that the state and the people are unreservedly behind their leaders."

"The storm troop organization is a part of our movement, but it was never to be an end in itself."

"To attempt to make it such must needs lead to failure."

New Leadership.

"The storm troops will receive new leadership and whoever opposes that leadership will be arrested."

"The Prussian premier then read two communiques from Chancellor Hitler. The first of them read:

"I have today removed chief of staff, Roehm from his position and thrown him out of the party and the storm troops."

"I name as chief of staff and supreme group leader Lutze."

"Storm troop leaders and storm troop men who do not obey his orders or who act contrary to them will be removed from the storm troops and the party or arrested and adjudged."

(Signed) "Herr Hitler, supreme party and storm troop leader."

It may be recalled that Roehm had been the only one of Hitler's associates who, in public communications and addresses, called the Chancellor by the German familiar "Du."

Part With Old Friend.

Hitler thus parts company with one of his oldest friends and companions.

The second communication read by Goering was a letter to the Reichstag in which he said:

"The most heinous default in my chief of staff has compelled me to remove him from his position."

"You, my dear supreme group leader Lutze, have for many years, in good and bad days, been an ever equally faithful and model storm troop leader."

"If today I name you chief of staff, I do it in the firm conviction that, through your faithful and obedient labors you will succeed in making out of my storm troops the instrument that the nation needs and that I have in mind."

It is my wish that the storm troops shall be transformed into a faithful and strong link in the chain constituting the national socialist movement. Filled with the idea of obedience and blind discipline, it must help to form a man."

State Department Silent.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(AP)—Silence was maintained today at the state department and the German embassy on the disturbances in Germany.

The state department had received no official dispatches from Ambassador Dodd and Secretary Hull had Undersecretary William Phillips declined to comment.

Rudolf Leitner, charge d'affaires of the German embassy, in the absence of Ambassador Hans Luther, also said the embassy had received no dispatches from Berlin.

Administration officials for some time have been aware that an extremely delicate situation existed in Germany but have carefully refrained from making any comment whatever.

Communication Cut Off.

PARIS, June 30.—(AP)—Telephone communications between Paris and Berlin were suddenly cut off at 4:30 p. m. today.

The telephone lines carrying the news of the hectic happenings in Germany functioned normally until the news had been allowed to pass, then, flatly, the answer was given:

"Berlin does not reply!"

Austro-German Border Closed.

VIENNA, June 30.—(AP)—The Austro-German border was closed to all traffic at noon today.

Trains arriving at Salzburg were empty, all passengers being forced to leave the cars before the trains reached the line.

At 2:45 p. m. the border was opened again at Kufstein.

VIENNA, June 30.—(AP)—Motorized detachments equipped with bayonets rushed various district posts offices today and occupied them in military form in an alarm drill to test the defense of national communications.

SUDDEN APPEARANCE OF TROOPS ADDS TO SATURDAY TURMOIL

BERLIN'S OFFICE WORKERS BELCHED FORTH ON WELL GUARDED STREETS

By RUDOLF JOSTEN

(Associated Press Foreign Staff)

(Copyright, 1934, By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, June 30.—(AP)—The sudden appearance of heavily armed police patrolling the streets today made tumult of Berlin's usual Saturday noon rush hour.

Huge throngs of clerks and office workers, belching in masses into the streets and squares patrolled by Goering's green clad, armed special police, traffic cops with helmet ribbons lowered beneath the chin.

They stood on the street corners, flabbergasted by the unexpected display. They asked each other "what and why?" but before answers could be given guards positioned themselves on, and shrouded shoulders to all questions.

One of the city's main subway lines suspended operation into the city during the early afternoon.

Obviously to keep the masses of curious onlookers in check.

Rumors of alleged mutiny within the storm troops spread like wild fire through the suburbs and attracted throngs. Despite this, normal activities continued in many sections.

Guards Everywhere.

The Potsdammer railway station, usually an extremely busy hub, was all but deserted. Taxis became scarce on the trip in one of them through the Wilhelmstrasse and adjoining streets where government and other public buildings stand revealed the quarters heavily guarded by a strong police company.

Heavy guards also were posted in the entrance to the Gestapo secret police headquarters in Prinz Albrecht street. Other public buildings had police sentries posted about them. Hitler's elite Black Shirts, the Schutz Staffel.

The scenes were reminiscent of the hectic days before Hitler's chancellorship. An array of heavy police trucks lined up in front of Goering's ministry of the interior on the Unter den Linden. This indicated the presence of Goering's special police force.

The route from the Tier Garten to the Reichstag was crowded with motor lorries carrying more of Goering's police. No one could gain access to the office of Vice Chancellor Von Papen.

ALLEGED ORGIES

AND FOREIGN PLOT

LED ROEHM ARREST

COMMANDER NAZI STORM

TROOPS ALSO CONSPIRED

WITH VON SCHLEICHER

BERLIN, June 30.—(AP)—Orgies of an indecipherable nature by Nazi storm troop leaders and an alleged plot between Capt. Ernst Roehm, national commander of the storm troops, and "a foreign power" were announced by the Nazi party today as responsible for Roehm's arrest and removal from office.

The party press department said Roehm furthermore had conspired with former Chancellor Kurt Von Schleicher against the government.

Von Schleicher was killed today as he resisted arrest.

The press department communique read as follows:

"For many months, certain elements have been trying to drive wedges and create friction between the storm troops and the (national socialist) party and between the storm troops and the state."

"The suspicion that these attempts emanated from a limited clique with certain leanings was more and more confirmed."

"Chief of Staff Roehm, in whom Der Fuehrer had placed unusual confidence, not only did not oppose these tendencies but doubtlessly advanced them."

"His well known unfortunate homosexual disposition in course of time led to such unbearable embarrassment that the leader of the movement and the supreme head of the storm troops himself was brought into the severest conflict of conscience."

"Chief of Staff Roehm without the knowledge of Der Fuehrer entered into relations with General Schleicher. In doing so, he was using both of another storm troop leader and one of obscure personality, known in Berlin, but thoroughly disapproved by Adolf Hitler."

"When these negotiations finally broke down, the storm troops, in knowledge of the leader extended to a foreign power or, rather, its mission here, it was no longer possible both from the standpoint of the party and of the state to refrain from intervening."

State Department Silent.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(AP)—Silence was maintained today at the state department and the German embassy on the disturbances in Germany.

The state department had received no official dispatches from Ambassador Dodd and Secretary Hull had Undersecretary William Phillips declined to comment.

Rudolf Leitner, charge d'affaires of the German embassy, in the absence of Ambassador Hans Luther, also said the embassy had received no dispatches from Berlin.

Administration officials for some time have been aware that an extremely delicate situation existed in Germany but have carefully refrained from making any comment whatever.

Communication Cut Off.

PARIS, June 30.—(AP)—Telephone communications between Paris and Berlin were suddenly cut off at 4:30 p. m. today.

The telephone lines carrying the news of the hectic happenings in Germany functioned normally until the news had been allowed to pass, then, flatly, the answer was given:

"Berlin does not reply!"

Austro-German Border Closed.

VIENNA, June 30.—(AP)—The Austro-German border was closed to all traffic at noon today.

Trains arriving at Salzburg were empty, all passengers being forced to leave the cars before the trains reached the line.

At 2:45 p. m. the border was opened again at Kufstein.

Opponents Nazi-Ruled Germany Had Gradually Been Gaining Strength

(By The Associated Press.)

A series of dramatic events in Nazi Germany in the last fortnight preceded the swift moves today by the regime of Chancellor Hitler to check opposition.

Among these events, all believed highly instrumental in bringing the situation in the reich to a head, are the following:

1. The persistently reported imminence of a disarmament of the storm troops, the Nazi chieftain's brown-shirted force whose efforts were important in his fight for power and following his accession to the chancellorship. Reports that disbandment was likely were given considerable credence by the order issued this week that during the month of July the storm troops will be required to refrain from wearing their brown-shirted uniforms.

2. The arrest by secret police of Edgar Jung, publicist, who assembled material for Vice Chancellor Franz Von Papen's Marburg speech June 17. This speech was the boldest criticism of the Nazi regime by a person in authority since Hitler became chancellor.

Von Papen assailed so called "national bolshevists" within the Nazi party. Jung's arrest, it was believed, was an act of retaliation against Von Papen by Nazi radicals.

United States Note.

3. The note handed by Secretary of State Hull last Thursday to Rudolph Leitner, German charge d'affaires at Washington. This note bluntly rejected as fallacious the reasoning advanced by the reich for its complete suspension of payments on long-term and medium-term bonds.

Denying that the default was inevitable because of a depleted trade balance, Secretary Hull pointed to the huge cost of the reich's anti-Semitic policy, which, through an ineffectual boycott which grew out of it, cut Germany's foreign trade calamitously.

4. The meeting of Premier Mussolini of Italy and Chancellor Hitler at Venice. On that historic occasion it was understood that Duce revealed himself as none too amiable disposed toward Hitler's practices, despite the fact that Italy and Germany both have fascist governments, and that Hitler was in favor of acting along lines dictated by reality, rather than by idealism.

Von Papen's Speech.

5. The Von Papen speech at Marburg. Although he presented it as a personal statement, it was clearly a statement of the cabinet.

6. The visit of Hitler to President Von Hindenburg and widened a cabinet schism.

7. The arrest of Hitler to President Von Hindenburg at Heudeck.

8. The Von Papen speech, which burst like a bombshell, splitting the cabinet into three factions.

9. Von Hindenburg told Von Papen, in effect, that the speech was "all right."

Former Chancellor

Slain by Police

BERLIN, June 30.—(AP)—Former Chancellor Kurt Von Schleicher was killed today while resisting police attempting to arrest him as a conspirator against the government.

Police had been assigned to arrest Premier Hermann Wilhelm Goering to arrest the former chancellor, the man who preceded Hitler as head of the German government.

Von Schleicher was alleged to have conspired with the reactionaries against the present regime.

Von Schleicher's government lasted 56 days and was the shortest regime since the last imperial cabinet under Prince Max Von Baden which fell before the 1932 revolution.

The resignation of Von Schleicher came on January 28, 1933, after President Von Hindenburg refused to give him authority to dissolve the reichstag and assume a dictatorship rule. Hitler was made chancellor two days later.

During the six months of the government of the present vice chancellor, Franz Von Papen, General Von Schleicher was minister of defense. When he succeeded Von Papen he continued as minister of defense and became federal commissioner of Prussia as well.

Never Popular.

The general was never a popular figure in politics and political writers liked to describe him as "The Laughing Sphinx." Virtually all of the strong party forces turned against him as soon as he came into power.

The nationalists opposed his program for dividing big eastern estates into small settlements. The centrists resented him because to him they attributed the fall of Chancellor Brüning.

MEN AND WOMEN AND HATS
When Nellie goes to buy a hat
She looks at this and looks at that
The wicker a mile or two each day
To gaze at Bonnets on display.
And very wisely she stops
Before the windows of the shops,
Intent on finding if she can
A model of so rare a plan.
That when she ventures on the street
Its own twin sister she won't meet.
When Nellie wants to buy a hat
It must not be too high, too tight,
Too wide, too narrow or too gay,
Too simple or too much to pay.
But more important far than price
Or style or fit or looking nice,
The bonnet that she buys must be Unlikely to remind of military.
"Because," she says, "no woman wears."
For hats her next door neighbor
wears."
But I am not disturbed like that.
When I am told I like a hat
I merely drop into a shop
And pick one from the newest crop.
"Sevens and five-eighths" I tell the clerk.
He hands one down, and with a jerk
I slap it on, and out I go,
Crowned for another year or so.
Content to meet the rain and shine
A million other hats like mine.

WAY TO PROSPER
One of the Washington correspondents (Paul Mallon) quotes an anonymous gentleman at Washington as saying confidentially that the best thing that could happen now, for national recovery, would be for every-one stop yelling. He proposed a three months' moratorium on complaints by business, labor and all those not suffering real hardships. "Here is business," he said, "half recovered, bleating about profits, extra hours, union leaders and what not. Here is labor working under as good conditions generally as it ever had, howling to high heaven because it cannot have everything it wants. If everyone would shut up and work hard just for a trial period, the country would be a lot better off."

PROTEAN TAXES
Taxes are like Proteus, the old man of the sea. Driven from one place, they bob up in another, changing form and never yielding.
Taxpayers are beginning to discover this fact. Some of the states lately lowered the maximum tax percentage on real estate, which had been bearing an unfair share of the general tax burden. Then, just as they had begun to breathe more freely, they found that their tax valuations were being jacked up so that the lower realty rate would hit them about as hard as ever. And now they face the added burden of new sales and income taxes.

BARUCH'S MEMOIRS
It is easy to forecast one sure use for the new leisure so widely advertised. There will be a vast production of memoirs. This is already one of our leading occupations. Soon everybody capable of writing a book, or dictating one, or employing a plausible "ghost writer," will be adding to the output.

JULY WILDFLOWERS
A columnist asked for a list of July wildflowers. He couldn't think of any. His readers could, however, and he soon acquired a long list containing a few fancy botanical names and many familiar ones. Reading the list one learns why some people think there are no "wildflowers" in mid-summer. It is because these blooms are so tremendously abundant and are usually thought of as weeds. Under such disguises as "cichorium intybus," "verbascum thapsus" and "blattaria" attention is called to chicory and the mullins, quite common flowers of July fields. There are the cardinal flower, the milkweed, morning glory, Queen Anne's lace, daisies, buttercups, brown-eyed Susans, many varieties of wild asters, bergamot and a host of others too numerous to mention.

CHEAPER AIR MAIL
The public will welcome the new air mail rates going into effect July 1. The present plan for first-class mail, which has charged 5 cents for the first ounce and 10 cents for each additional ounce, in addition to the regular 3 cents an ounce for letter mail, now gives place to a flat 6 cents an ounce. The moderate saving of 2 cents on a one-ounce letter will be welcome. Still more welcome will be the saving of 9 cents on a two-ounce letter. Business institutions will appreciate this especially.

RAIL COMMISSION REDUCES PRODUCTION FOR STATE FIELDS

BARELY OVER MILLION BARRELS BELOW THAT RECOMMENDED BY GOVERNMENT

AUSTIN, June 29.—(P)—The Texas railroad commission today ordered allowable oil production of all flush fields in the state cut 10 per cent, reducing the state total to 1,006,000 barrels daily. It reduced the state allowable to 36,000 barrels daily below the amount recommended by the department of interior.

The slash was ordered effective at 7 a. m. Sunday.

The reduction was applicable to the East Texas, Van, Conroe and Yates fields. Production schedules for other areas were unchanged.

The commission said the orders were based on the quantity of "corrected oil," which it defined as "net oil after reduction of gas, water, and correction for temperature and strapping."

Legal production in the East Texas field on June 24 was 508,051 barrels, based on a permitted daily output of five per cent of the hourly potential. The commission said excess production was about 32,000 barrels daily.

Prior to the reductions, production in the Yates field was 46,500 barrels daily; Van 47,500 barrels daily, and Conroe 43,000 barrels daily.

State wide production was 1,071,033 barrels on June 24.

Attempt to Back Automobile From Houston-New York

Using a 1914 model Lambert car Gene Cheek and H. E. Williams making trip from Houston to New York backwards made a short stop in Corsicana Saturday.

The trio left the Bayou City June 18, but due to mechanical trouble have been tied up near Streetman for the past week. The needed repairs have been made and now Williams believes his Lambert will safely back him to Manhattan in about seven weeks.

The trip to New York is touted by Chicago where a visit to the Century of Progress is scheduled.

According to Williams his queer looking mode of transportation will make about 35 miles an hour but the usual speed is about 25 miles an hour.

Williams gained some publicity several years ago when he rolled a hoop from Houston to New York.

GOVERNMENT WINDS UP FISCAL YEAR IN HOLE $4,000,000,000

NATIONAL DEBT STANDS AT SLIGHTLY MORE THAN TWENTY-SEVEN BILLIONS

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(P)—The government, winding up its fiscal year today, found it had spent about $4,000,000,000 more than it collected.

That's counting emergency expenses. Balancing receipts against ordinary expenditures, the government was declared to be $28,000,000 "in the black" for the year.

Treasury officials scanned the industrial picture for an indication of what the new year would mean to the coffers.

President Roosevelt has estimated nearly $5,000,000,000 would be added to the national debt by emergency expenses during the next 12 months. This was predicted on recovery that would make industrial production average 98 per cent of the 1923-25 level.

In July, 1935, the president hopes to start a new program for recovery. By that time, he said, the budget should be balanced.

According to the federal reserve board's index, the industrial production figure for the year just ended was slightly above the 81 per cent average on which the president based his hopes. In May it rose to 87, last July it went to 91 for a high point reached by speculative business activity.

The last figures available for June 27, show the national debt was $27,008,336,085 as compared with $22,557,272,528 the corresponding day last year.

DELINQUENT TAX SUITS EXPECTED TO BE FILED SOON

The delinquent tax rolls for the years of 1931 and 1932 will be delivered to the office of C. C. Miller, criminal district attorney, by R. L. (Bob) Harris, tax collector, early next week and delinquent tax suits are scheduled to be filed in the district court by the criminal district attorney's office within the near future it was revealed Saturday morning.

No estimate of the number of suits to be filed for those two years was available as officials had not checked the list, but it will be several thousand.

Taxes for 1933 will become delinquent if not paid Saturday. It is expected that the suits will be filed within a few days.

Months time before the proper notices, etc., have been prepared and sent out, and it will probably be about September before the suits will be filed.

Attorneys in the criminal district attorney's office are making preliminary plans, etc., for the handling of the large volume of tax suits.

A law passed by the legislature has prevented the filing of delinquent tax suits for 1931 and 1932. The last year suits were filed was 1930.

Interest and interest on delinquent taxes will again be in force July 1.

Woman and Two Men Saved From Chair for Time

OSKINSING, N. Y., June 30.—(P)—The hand of the executioner was stayed again today for Anna Antonio and her two men conspirators—stayed, but for little more than a week.

The story that saved them temporarily—death will be stated by one of the men that Mrs. Antonio was innocent of the murder of her husband—was branded officially "a lie!"

For the second time in 48 hours, Governor Herbert H. Lehman lifted the window of the condemned chair from the young mother, Vincent Saeetta and Sam Feraci last night, as the hour drew near for their sing sing death walk.

After weighing the statement for a day, with three lives in the balance, the governor announced from his home in New York City: "The district attorney, while expressing the opinion that the statement of Saeetta has no merit, in the interests of justice concurred that a reprieve should be granted in order that counsel for Mrs. Anna Antonio should have an opportunity to make a motion for a new trial."

"I am granting a reprieve until the week beginning July 9, 1934, in the case of all three defendants."

The word was communicated swiftly to Sing Sing prison, to Mrs. Antonio's cell in the death house.

"Oh, thank God!" she cried, sinking back onto her cot, sick from the ordeal, and burying her head in a pillow.

In Chicago for some time. The body is scheduled to arrive in Corsicana Monday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock.

Surviving are a son, James Edwards, Los Angeles, and two daughters, Mrs. Dave Whitehead, Chicago, and another in Chicago; and five sisters, Mrs. W. A. Miel, Chatfield; Mrs. T. B. LeSueur, Corsicana; Mrs. Walter Griffith, Barry; Mrs. S. C. LeSueur, Mabany; and Mrs. T. Matthews, Austin; and a number of other relatives.

The funeral will be directed by the Corley Funeral Home.

NATION HAS ROOSEVELT PLAN FOR FURTHER REHABILITATION OF NATION AND FUTURE SAFETY

By FRANCES M. STEPHENSON
WASHINGTON, June 29.—(P)—President Roosevelt's lashing of die-hard and pledge of a "vast new deal" promised today to resound in the campaigns for the fall elections.

Friend and foe alike studied the latest "report to the nation" in which the President claimed "substantial gains," laughed at "prophecies of calamity" and again pledged a vast new program for "the security of the men, women and children of the nation."

Sitting in the oval room of the white house, in the steaming heat of a Washington summer, the President gave a radio talk last night in which he:

1. Praised congress as the most unpartisan since the time "of President Washington himself."

2. Cited statistics to show gains in wages, employment, farm prices and consuming power.

3. Struck at "plausible self-deception" of "die-hard" who "tell you of loss of individual liberty."

4. Declared the "most vociferous of the doubting Thomases" are those who seek special political or financial privileges.

5. Said the "most harmful self-seekers" are being stepped on and are going to be stepped on."

6. Reaffirmed his faith in "the future of the nation."

Palmer Predicts To Receive Chair In Guard Murder

ANDERSON, June 29.—(P)—Joe Palmer was assessed the death penalty today by a jury which convicted him of murder of Major Crowson, Eastham prison farm guard, in the sensational break from the farm last January 18.

ANDERSON, June 29.—(P)—With Joe Palmer continuing to prophesy gloomily that he will be assessed the death penalty, testimony in his trial for murder of Major Crowson, Eastham prison farm guard, was concluded in district court here this morning.

Attorneys were granted a recess to study the court's charge to the jury. They expected to start arguments shortly after lunch.

Palmer was quoted as saying after he had heard the state's case against him outlined that he wished he had gone with the notorious Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Barker on the trip which ended in their deaths at the hands of officers.

"It looks like I am going to die anyhow and if I had done that it would have been a lot better off now," the dejected defendant said.

Cheatham, were united in marriage Saturday, June 30, at 4:45 p. m. in a pretty home wedding at Mr. Cheatham's home 520 Collin street.

The entire lower floor of the home was thrown en suite for the occasion, and beautifully decorated with cut flowers.

The marriage vows were taken before an improvised altar of pines and fern embanked against the mantle in the living room, the impressive double ring ceremony having been read by the Rev. Crowe, pastor of the First Methodist church.

The bride, attended by her foster sister, Miss Iyle Cheatham, and Mr. Cheatham, was becomingly gowned in a medium blue sheer tulle harmonizing accessories and wore a bridal corsage of lilies of the valley and tulle roses.

Reception Is Held.
A reception followed at which time the bride's cake, a beautiful confection, was cut and served with brick ice cream.

Magnolia Refiners Trowned Tyler Red Devils Sunday 8-1

Magnolia Refiners had little difficulty with the Tyler Red Devils Sunday afternoon, winning 8-1, behind Robinson's effective pitching in the pinches. Robinson whiffed 12 Tyler batters and held them to six hits, two of which were secured by G. Lewis, pitcher, who was the outstanding performer of the visitors. The Tyler pitcher is not a regular hurler. He hammered out a triple and single and it was out a triple and single in the ninth which netted his club the lone counter. The sacrifice fly was a robbery of the Tyler hurler when Robert Finley ran into the cotton field to spot the well hit ball.

Magnolia started the fireworks early in the game when three runs were put across in the opening stanza.

THE VERY NEWEST MISS FORBES IN HOLLYWOOD

Miss Forbes gets about a good deal—once a year, at least, abroad, and twice to the other center of beauty, Hollywood. She has several new ideas from Hollywood this week.

There is, after all, something new and startling in the beauty line. It is a new make-up, launched (of course) in Hollywood. It is so new that only a few of the stars in the film colony have taken it up, and no new that perhaps you won't be able to get the materials in your own town as yet. Cheer up! If the idea fascinates you, I'll tell you how to copy it.

It is called by various fancy names, including that of luminous make-up. To be less romantic, it is a combination of finishing creams, which with or without powder, give the face a glossy surface. A glossiness with a difference, of course—for the highlights come where you want them, and where they are becoming. This gives contour to thin faces, and accentuates the curves of less slender ones. It gives a highlight on each cheek, down the sides of the nose (not the tip) the end of the chin, and the outward curve of the eyelids. It lends firmness to the face, and creates a quite new and very interesting appearance.

The very hollow-cheeked and the very round-faced should avoid this make-up; others will find it becoming. If you want to test it on yourself, simply cover your face with cold cream, rub it in well, wipe it off lightly, then rub a chamois, or a powder puff down the tip of the nose, around the mouth, across the forehead and the edges of the face toward the hair—and study the result. You have now the highlights of your face which the luminous make-up gives. Does it improve you?

If so, try it. I think it charming for hot days out of doors, rather than for evening wear. Later I'll suggest ways of coloring your cream, to give the skin certain tones which you may find becoming.

H. W.—The only thing you could do to make your hair a lighter shade would be to bleach it, but since you have had such satisfactory results by using camomile tea on it, it does not seem advisable to make the change. Bringing out the highlights, while retaining the natural shade, is an achievement, and the results should mean that the effect is one that looks natural and very becoming to you. Peroxide, or a bleach similar to it, would be the only thing to give you the lighter shade.

Twenty-two—At your age, it is likely that the bust will recover and be firm again, but it will take time, and the only thing you can do is to douche the whole chest with cold water to get up the spontaneous reaction that should follow of quickening the circulation.

RANCH HOME BURNED EARLY SATURDAY IN STREETMAN SECTOR

STREETMAN, June 30.—(Spl.)—The ranch home of F. A. Coleman about two and one half miles west of Streetman was destroyed by fire of unknown origin at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. The roof was falling in when the fire was discovered. The occupants barely had time to escape and only a few articles were saved.

The loss is estimated at several thousand dollars. The home was one of the landmarks of the Cade community in which it was situated.

James Coleman, a grandson of the owner, F. A. Coleman, was burned about the back when he re-entered the house to recover a violin which was treasured as an heirloom. His burns were not thought to be serious. None of the others were burned.

The home was occupied by F. A. Coleman and a son, J. A. Coleman, who had moved into the death of Mrs. F. A. Coleman about three weeks ago.

STATUS OF FORD AT NRA HEADQUARTERS IS MOOT QUESTION

WASHINGTON FORD DEALER DESIRES BID ON TWO MILLION DOLLAR ORDER

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(AP)—NRA had not received a signed letter of blue eagle compliance from Henry Ford, though a local dealer indicated his intention to bid on approximately $2,000,000 of war department contracts.

E. P. Sabine, of the Northwest Motor company, a Ford dealer, and his attorney, F. Hunter Creech, conferred at NRA headquarters with I. D. Ewert in the automotive section.

After his conference it was learned the war department was taking bids today on a large contract and that Sabine intended to compete.

For as NRA officials were concerned a signed letter from the Ford Motor company still was awaited.

It was thought Sabine's bid might be submitted conditionally subject to possible receipt of the signed letter of compliance, but whether such a bid would be accepted was up to the war department.

NRA officials said they had no indication that the letter of compliance approved Saturday by Hugh S. Johnson would not be signed by a responsible Ford Motor official, but said they knew of no person in the capital qualified to sign for Ford.

Later, the war department announced contracts had been awarded to the Chevrolet Motor company of Detroit for 300 trucks for $202,247.

PRIMARY

(Continued From Page One) who is campaigning on a "new deal" platform, is expected to place the contest among the leading candidates for governor.

Corporation Commissioner J. C. Walton, impeached and removed as governor in 1923 is another strong contender in the gubernatorial race.

Running on an anti-party platform, Attorney General W. J. Berry King expects to reach the runoff election. Lieutenant Governor Robert Burns, asking abolition of Murray's tax commission and Gomer Smith, Oklahoma city attorney are considered leaders.

Former United States Senator, W. B. Pine probably will receive the republican nomination in tomorrow's election.

Several independent and socialist candidates and one prohibitionist candidate are in the race. Little interest is being taken in the minor state offices and there are few issues. But virtually all candidates for governor pledged for tax reduction and homestead exemption.

Seven of the state's nine congressmen are seeking re-election. Rogers, the Moore school teacher, faces a large number of opponents in the race for congress.

Several large strong opponents have filed against Rep. Wesley Disney in the first district, Wilbur Cartwright in the third, Tom D. McDewon in the fourth, F. B. Swank in the fifth, Ed. Johnson in the sixth and Jim W. McClintic in the seventh.

Rep. Marland, eighth district congressman, is running for governor and Rep. W. H. Hastings in the second district is retiring.

Observers expect a vote of about 400,000, larger than in the usual primary election in this state. Polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. in rural and city precincts and from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. in large cities.

BUSINESS REVIEW

According to the June 1 report of the department of agriculture, the cotton crop in 1936 will be larger than the small crop of 1933 but will fall considerably below the average.

Feed crops are suffering from the dry weather and reduced yields are indicated. While the cotton crop has made fair to good progress generally, growth has been slow, plants are small for this season and there are some complaints of premature blooming.

The presence of insects over a wide area is a potential danger to the crop. Livestock have about held their own but are beginning to feel the effects of poor pasturage.

The financial situation reflected no material changes during the month. The deposits of member banks declined seasonally, the daily average of combined net demand and time deposits being $708,920,000 in May as compared with $715,945,000 in April, and $680,922,000 in May, 1935.

The deposits of member banks in selected cities reflected a further decline between May 9 and June 13, but their investments increased slightly.

COULTER

(Continued From Page One) Both the officer and Mrs. Morgan deny they are guilty of misconduct. The officer was given the option of taking a reprimand or standing trial and he chose the latter.

Since the outset of the investigation and the preliminary hearing of the case army officials have remained silent regarding details. The only two copies of the exact charges have never been quoted.

Morgan, in her action for divorce, which was granted July 17, 1933, alleged harsh and cruel treatment and was given custody of her minor child.

Captain Coulter, commanding officer, Company M, 23rd Infantry, will be represented by Captain W. A. Craig as military defense counsel. In addition he has retained Leonard Brown, prominent San Antonio attorney, as his civilian defense counsel.

The court martial got under way in the same courtroom in which Major W. C. Ocker, blind fighting expert was exonerated about six weeks ago, of charges of making derogatory remarks concerning his superior officer.

Johnson Plans Answer Latest Darrow Report

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(AP)—Hugh S. Johnson intends to fire the parting shot in his feud with Clarence Darrow.

His plan, his NRA aides at work today drafting an answer to the final report of the recovery review board Darrow headed.

Like the previous two, the third report maintained NRA fostered monopoly. In so doing, it said last night, the recovery unit became "not the foe but the adjunct of depression."

Despite its recommendations, the board said, "there seems a sinister purpose to entrench monopolistic practices 'still more securely in the processes of the act.'"

Abandonment of price-fixing was recommended. Since completion of the report, Darrow has resigned. Other members said they would take a recess until they received further directions from President Roosevelt.

PLANE CRASH

(Continued From Page One) Over the week-end, the two fliers, who were friends of the friends for plane rides. Both were reputed to be excellent pilots and were the only aviators ever to make a night landing at the Center field.

Allen's mother lives in Lake Charles, La., and Heiman's mother is a resident of Dallas.

The bodies were brought to an undertaking establishment here pending word from relatives.

Miss Margarette Willie and Guy Willis, Jr., both of Center, and Miss Betsy Dixon of El Paso, among those at the field to see the fliers off, received serious burns and lacerations in a futile attempt to rescue the victims from their burning ship after it crashed.

Firemen from the Center C. C. Camp and Center finally succeeded in quenching the flames. Heiman was to have directed an aviation show at Kilgore July 4.

DALLAS, July 2.—(AP)—Rol Heiman, one of two fliers killed today in an airplane accident at Center, Texas, was unmarried and lived with his mother, Mrs. L. A. Heiman, and his brother, Ralph Heiman, in Dallas. Relatives said his body will be buried in Salisbury, Mo., probably Wednesday. His only other survivor is a brother, George, of Moberly, Mo.

Heiman, in a small two-seater cabin plane and had been operating independently out of Love Field here for the last 18 months, field attaches said. He was checking out the airplane Saturday morning with Oklahoma City as his destination, flying from Oklahoma City to Longview late Saturday and thence to Center.

Approximately 70,000 head of cattle have been moved to date from the drought area into Alabama, Texas, Oklahoma and the Southeastern states to be fed on pastures for a time before being sent to packing plants.

Drought relief officials reported an increase in the number of cattle consigned to farms for feed for human food. Until recently only about 6 per cent of the animals were so rejected but during the past week about 30 per cent of the cattle bought in New Mexico were condemned.

The average price increased by rejection of about 35 per cent of the animals bought in Texas and 20 to 25 per cent of those in other states of the extreme drought area.

The drought relief program for the balance of the summer calls for, in addition to work relief and furnishing of feed, food and seed, the purchase of about 5,000,000 cattle and 5,000,000 sheep.

Officials hope to complete the bulk of this purchasing before winter, being convinced that supplies of forage, hay and water, are insufficient to carry the present livestock population through the cold months. It is inevitable and imperative that this program be carried through, they say, and the sooner it is completed the less serious will the problem be next year.

Prolific Tomato Vine Is Displayed

S. M. Stark of the Pleasant Grove community was displaying an unusually prolific tomato vine Saturday morning. On a portion of the vine measuring only nine inches there were 21 tomatoes, all well developed and firm.

On Monday there were 13 tomatoes. They were of the June Pink variety.

Sick and Convalescent. Miss Margaret Emily Johnson, who underwent an operation for appendicitis recently at the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic, continues to improve.

Judge J. B. Jones of Blooming Grove is critically ill in the Navarro Clinic.

DILLINGER TRAIL AGAIN COLD AFTER SATURDAY ROBBERY

BELIEVED ELUSIVE KILLER BANDIT LED RAID ON SOUTH BEND BANK

CHICAGO, July 2.—(AP)—Once again John Dillinger has outwitted momentarily at least, his pursuers.

Although they cry "get Dillinger" he was shouted with new vigor by peace officers on the theory it was he who led the $23,898 raid of bank bandits on the Merchants National Bank of South Bend, Ind., the trail they followed was as cold as the others left from time to time by America's arch public enemy.

An attack by one of two desperadoes on a North Webster, Ind., physician looked for a time like an important clue in the hunt for the elusive gunman, but it was dissipated later when the doctor said he could not identify the men as Dillinger mobsters.

The physician, Dr. Leslie A. Laird, was knocked unconscious when hit over the head with the butt of a revolver in the hands of one of two men after he had been called from his home to his office Sunday morning.

One of them for a bullet wound in the arm. After he had given the wounded man his professional attention the pair asked for narcotics. Their request was refused and the attack followed.

Although Dillinger has often been reported dead, investigators said they were confident he was the leader of the band of robbers who killed Policeman Howard Wagner in the South Bend raid. All roads leading into Chicago were patrolled by heavily armed officers.

HITLER RULE

(Continued From Page One.) deny Saturday after weeks of rumors of subordination and plots. Some of the famous Storm Troopers, the backbone of Hitler's powers, indeed were already on the march against him, one source said.

Worry over the condition of the aged president Paul von Hindenburg intensified the crisis.

Physicians insisted the beloved leader was in no immediate danger, but it was rumored he was gravely ill and that a political will naming Von Papen vice chancellor, as his successor and calling on his devoted army to aid Von Papen if necessary.

Von Papen, whose outspoken criticism of radical Nazism June 17 was the first public act of strife within the government, remained at his home virtually a prisoner.

War Veteran Is Hanged at Early Hour on Friday

KANSAS CITY, June 29.—(AP)—Paul H. Kauffman, 35, World War veteran and former minor league baseball player, was hanged in the county jail here today for the murder of 17-year-old Avis Woolery of Webb City, Mo., whom he lured to Kansas City and attacked in Swope Park four years ago. His home was in Columbia, Pa.

The trap was sprung at 6:03 a. m.

Kauffman protested his innocence, announcing from the gallows that he expected someone to come forward and save him.

Prior to the first of his two trials, he confessed he met the young girl when she arrived from Webb City in response to his advertisement for a nurse-maid, choked her to death in the park after the attack and buried the body in a shallow grave.

The body was discovered two months later after Kauffman had been arrested for an offense against another girl.

Calmly awaiting the execution, Kauffman smoked, wrote letters, tried to finish a book he had been writing and recalled his brief baseball career with the Reading club of the International league. He ordered his personal effects sent to his mother, Mrs. Harry G. Kauffman, Columbia, Pa.

REVOLT CAUSES (Continued From Page One.) The Hitler government struck the first blow to crush all opposition to its authority.

Franz Von Papen, the vice chancellor, is another who has been regarded as friendly toward a monarchy. Despite his close friendship for Germany's nonchalant head—President Von Hindenburg—Von Papen today is a virtual prisoner in his own home.

Von Papen Virtual Prisoner. Von Papen's position allows something of a paradox. He is not a Nazi, yet his dealings with Hitler have always appeared to be close and cordial. He has "gone along" with the Hitler administration, but as was his new historic speech of June 17 has not hesitated to point out danger signs in Nazi policies.

Von Papen in his June 17 address, warned of the "extreme tendencies of the Nazi party." The speech, because it was frankly, though friendly—critical, was suppressed in Germany, but was published elsewhere. Hitler himself indicated he felt there was much more to Von Papen's statements, and he proposed to take steps toward turning the extremists back toward more conservative policies.

The fact remained today, however, that Von Papen was a virtual prisoner, despite his position as next in power to Hitler himself, and that the first public act of strife within the government, remained at his home virtually a prisoner.

The cabinet was in uninterrupted session studying the situation.

Physicians insisted the beloved leader was in no immediate danger, but it was rumored he was gravely ill and that a political will naming Von Papen vice chancellor, as his successor and calling on his devoted army to aid Von Papen if necessary.

NAPLES BANK WAS ROBBED MONDAY AT NOON BY TWO MEN

SECURE APPROXIMATELY $1000; ESCAPE IN COUPE DRIVEN BY THIRD MAN

NAPLES, July 2.—(AP)—The Morris County National Bank here was robbed of between $1,000 and $1,200 at noon today by two young men armed with pistols.

A. B. Childs, the cashier; Mrs. Winnie Walls, assistant cashier; and Childs' daughter, Mary Elaine, were in the bank when one of the robbers walked in the front door. The robbers presented Childs with a check for cashing and, as the cashier reached for it, the robber whipped out a pistol and covered him. A second robber entered through a side door about this time.

Childs and the other two were forced to lie on the floor while the robbers hastily gathered money in the cage. Then Childs was forced to open the vault. He estimated the robbers got between $1,000 and $1,200 but, as a complete check of the loss had not been made, could not give an accurate figure.

The robbers ran out of the bank and climbed in a small coupe driven by a third man. They sped south, with Sheriff Jack Ponder and deputies on their trail. The robbers fled into the Sulphur river bottoms where an intensive search was being made for them.

Childs described one robber as about 30 years old, five feet six inches tall and weighing around 150 pounds. The other was about five years older and stouter. One was fairly well dressed, the other roughly.

Childs said one of them claimed to be "John Dillinger" but the cashier said he knew he was not.

Later movement, which strikes at Catholic and Protestant alike, seeks to break the power of the church wherever that power might conflict with Nazi nationalist aims.

Some Common Ground. While the objectives of the storm troopers and the monarchists were not the same, there appeared to be a common ground in the reputed revolt, and that was the overthrow of Hitler. General Von Schleicher, some sources hold, may have felt that if the storm troopers succeeded in taking over the government, he might gain a new movement which would restore his position and re-establish the monarchy.

Von Papen's June 17 speech is presumed to have encouraged Von Schleicher to hope that he might gain the support of Von Papen in a monarchist move. Subsequent talks by Von Papen, however, made it plain that the vice chancellor was standing with Hitler.

And that his June 17 speech had been meant only to call attention to alarming trends which he felt the Nazi leader himself would wish corrected.

Unsuspectable Immoralities. Stories of unspectable immoralities among certain storm troopers have spread widely. In addition, foreign powers have frowned on the storm trooper movement, some call attention to the fact that the storm trooper movement is a menace to European peace. By discrediting the storm trooper leadership and virtually disbanding the troops, Hitler has gained a new movement which would restore his position and re-establish the monarchy.

Out of it all has come the definite gesture of a mailed fist. Hitler has indicated he intends to be the supreme authority in Germany, and that any conspirator against the Nazi party or Nazi principles will be summarily disposed of.

The directness of his action against Captain Ernest Roehm, leader of the Nazi party or Nazi principles will be summarily disposed of.

He ordered executed Saturday, and others accused of conspiracy has indicated to both his friends and foes that, rightly or wrongly, Adolf Hitler is committed to a course as another "iron chancellor."

Miss Jessie Mae Hillard was reported to be slightly improved Monday, but continues to be critically ill at home.

LUBBOCK MAN HELD AFTER BODIES MAN AND WOMAN FOUND

BERTHA GORDON AND J. A. DONALDSON OF POST HAD BEEN SHOT TWICE EACH

LUBBOCK, July 2.—(AP)—A Lubbock man who had been a Sunday evening companion of J. A. Donaldson, 48, and Bertha Gordon, 24, whose bullet-punctured bodies were found Sunday night near Post, was held by the Garza county sheriff's department there today.

The suspect, who owned a sport coupe in which the trio had ridden, had made an oral statement that did not incriminate him. District Attorney G. H. Nelson of Tahoma said at Post. Robbery had been eliminated from probable motives, he said.

A .45 calibre revolver found between the two bodies, which were in a narrow pit beside State Highway 84, four and one-half miles east of Post, was owned by the man arrested. Investigators said. Ownership of a pair of dice, also found near the bodies, had not been determined.

Both victims lived at Post. Funeral arrangements for Donaldson had been made at noon and services were to be conducted at his mother's home there this afternoon.

Donaldson and Miss Gordon each had been shot twice. The revolver contained four expended shells and an unfired cartridge, and one chamber was empty.

Several unidentified Post youths, pleasure riding, found the bodies. Meanwhile the man subsequently held, reported the deaths about 10 p. m. to the sheriff's office. Officers on the way to the scene met the youths who first found the corpses.

The suspect was arrested last Sunday night at Post by Sheriff W. F. Cato. The top of the suspect's car bore a bullet hole. Blood was in the car.

Cardenas, former minister of war and revolutionary campaigner, is scheduled to be sworn in December 1, to succeed President Abelardo Rodriguez.
